Dodge County Cloverleaf 4-Hers participate in Southeast District Project Achievement

On Saturday, March 12, 2016, 19 Dodge County Cloverleaf (fourth, fifth and sixth grade) 4-Hers traveled to Swainsboro to participate in Southeast District Project Achievement. These students competed against hundreds of other Southeast District 4-Hers in project areas of their choice. Of those 19 Dodge County 4-Hers, 13 were recognized as 1st through 3rd place winners.

The Dodge County Cloverleaf's brought home seven first place, four second place and two third place recognitions. The fourth graders had to compete in the fifth grade division.

Our 2016 Dodge County 4-H Representatives included: Akashi Johnson, second place in sixth grade Crafts Project; Allena Burch, fourth grade Target Sports Project; Ashlyn Grauberger, first place in fifth grade Arts Project; Ava Roland, first place in fifth grade Food for Health and Fitness; Briana Graham, first place in fifth grade Food Fare Project; Chase Bowling, sixth grade in Performing Arts Instrumental; Elizabeth Sanders, first place in fifth grade Beef Project; Ella Graham, first place in fourth grade Between Meal Snacks Project; Gavin Tripp, second place in fifth grade General Recreation Project.

Hailey Cossett, fourth grade in Target Sports Project; Isaac Sollers, fifth grade in Public Speaking; Jack Gay, third place in fifth grade Performing Arts Instrumental; Jocelynn Bourassa, second place in fifth grade Food Fare Project; Jolee Schrader, first place in fifth grade Performing Arts Vocal Project; Kale Bryant sixth grade Performing Arts Vocal Project; Kaleb McMillian, second place in sixth grade Between Meal

Snacks; Katie Beth Brewer, third place in sixth grade Grade Performing Arts Instrumental; Rebecca Bowling, first place in fifth grade Target Sports and Ryan Anderson, fourth grade History Project.

Congratulations to Allena Burch, as she was awarded a $50 Summer Camp scholarship in a random drawing that was held during the awards program.

We would like to extend a very big thank you to our Teen

Leaders who volunteered their time Macy Pruitt, Zoey Durdan, Grace Hendrix, Rebecca Howell and Bowen Horne.

We are thrilled with the continued support of the school system, community and most of all our parents and children! For more information on activities that your child can become involved in through Dodge County 4-H, please contact Keshia Jones or Brittany Piper at the Dodge County Extension Office at 478-374-8138.
