School:	4-H'ers Name:	County
EMAVIOR STANDARDS   Act Fers are expected to a stend all sessions as part of a planned program exhibiting positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthing responsibility; respectifuens, carriag, officensing and fairness.   Act Fers are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.   Act Fers are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.   Act Fers may not behave recklessly or in a manner which prohibits others from participating in the program in the manner intended.   Act Fers may have access to technology at USA/CES offices and facilities. Technology use is for educational purposes. Act Fers may not access inappropriate websites or materials.   Realizing these guidelines are not visible and the safety of Georgia Extension staff and volonteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policical activities and adults who observes a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete incident report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.   Afters are found participating in actions listed below, during 4-H events, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4-H'ers may be removed from the event and suspended or expelled from future 4-H articipation. These behaviors may include, but are not restricted to:   Possession or use of a weapon   Assault or harassment   Inappropriate sexual behavior   Possession or use of a weapon   Assault or harassment   Inappropriate sexual behavior   Here's who participate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.   Pressession or use of length of the program may also be removed,	Address:	Phone
Me Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct is valid for one year and applies to all activities coordinated through Georgia 4-H.  A-H'ers are expected to a title all sessions as part of a planned program exhibiting positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthine responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.  A-H'ers are spected to be responsible to the reasonable requests of leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.  A-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner witch problists others from participating in the program in the manner intended.  A-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner witch problists others from participating in the program in the manner intended.  A-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner witch problists others from participating in the program in the manner intended.  A-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner witch problems are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policies.  Reckleing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policies.  Reckleing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policies.  CONSEQUENCES OF MISBEHAVIOR  H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete necident report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.  A-H'ers are found participating in in ections sisted below, during 4-H events, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the eview and consequences related to the incident.  Possession or use of all weapon  A-Sastor to harvest and participating in the actions so tisted below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may le	School:	Grade:	Year:
the Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct Is valid for one year and applies to all activities coordinated through Georgia 4-H.  4-H'ers are expected to a testinal dissessions as part of a planead program exhibiting positive character and behavior including (but not limited to) trustworthine responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.  4-H'ers should dress appropriately, use appropriate language and respect to the responsive to the reasonable requests of leaders and respectful of the needs for their personal safety and the safety of others.  4-H'ers may not behave recidesty or in a manner with robbilist others from participating in the program in the manner intended.  4-H'ers may have access to technology as LGAC/SCS offices and facilities. Technology use is for educational purposes. 4-H'ers may not access inappropriate websites or materials.  Realizing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policie websites or material and determine the next steps regarding the incident.  CONSEQUENCES OF MISBEHAVIOR  H-H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete neided the report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.  4-H'ers are found participating in actions listed below, during 4-H events, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the eview and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4-H'ers may be removed from the event and suspended or expelled from future 4-H articipation. These behaviors may include, but are not restricted to:  Possession or use of all legal drugs  Possession or use of all weapon  Assaul to rharacsment  Inappropriate sexual behavior  Possession or use of a weapon  Assaul to rharacsment  Inappropriate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  Her 4-H'e <ul> <li>4.44 res may not behave recklessly or in a manner which prohibits others from participating in the program in the manner intended.</li> <li>4.44 res may have access to technology at UGA/CES offices and facilities. Technology use is for educational purposes. 4.44 res may not access inappropriate websites or materials.</li> <li>Realizing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia Extension staff and volunteers reserve the right to make adjustments to these policic designations.</li> <li>CONSEQUENCES OF MISBERHAVIOR</li> <li>4.44 res and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete includent report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.</li> <li>4.44 res are found participating in cations listed below, during 4.44 events, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the eview and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4.44 res may be removed from the event and suspended or expelled from future 4.44 articipation. These behaviors may include, but are not restricted to:          <ul> <li>Possession or use of a weapon</li> <li>Assault or harassment</li> <li>Inappropriate sexual behavior</li> <li>4.44 e.44 res is found participating in the actions listed below, 4.44 leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4.4 res misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the vent may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary actions hould be taken. A review board will consider the Evidence of the Conduct of the program activities in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the vent will serve as chairperson. In one case, incidents are</li></ul></li></ul>	<ul> <li>4-H'ers are expected to attend all sessions as part of a planned program exhibit responsibility, respectfulness, caring, citizenship and fairness.</li> <li>4-H'ers are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of leaders a</li> </ul>	oiting positive character and behavior of the industrial of the needs for their
CONSEQUENCES OF MISBEHAVIOR 4-H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must report the misbehavior to the appropriate leader. The leader will complete incident report and determine the next steps regarding the incident.  ### are found participating in ections listed below, during 4-H events, law enforcement or other legal authorities may be notified and may lead the eview and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4-H'ers may be removed from the event and suspended or expelled from future 4-H participation. These behaviors may include, but are not restricted to:  ### Possession or use of illegal drugs ### Possession or use of a weapon ### Assault or harassment ### Inappropriate sexual behavior  ### Inappropriate sexual behavior  ### Inappropriate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  ### ### If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions studied of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  ### ### If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the vent may also convene a review board or the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist may be consistently or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member confining the event will serve as challepreson. In ome cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.  ### ### ### ### ### ### ### ### ### #	<ul> <li>4-H'ers may not behave recklessly or in a manner which prohibits others from</li> <li>4-H'ers may have access to technology at UGA/CES offices and facilities. Tech</li> </ul>	participating in the program in the	manner intended. ses. 4-H'ers may not access inappropriate
Possession or use of illegal drugs Possession or use of illegal drugs Possession or use of illegal drugs Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Inappropriate sexual behavior Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Inappropriate sexual behavior Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Aries who participate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. A'res misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist one Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chaliperson. In ome cases, includents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities. If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the barents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poord, the 4-H'er may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poord, the 4-H'er may be sent home at the barents' expense and may be referred by the country Extension for the disciplinary action. The appearance of the program and the State 4-H leader for ruling by the State 4-H leader. Following any disciplinary review, he person coordinating the activity	Realizing these guidelines are not "all inclusive" the University of Georgia External	ension staff and volunteers reserve	the right to make adjustments to these policie
Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Inappropriate sexual behavior  1-H'ers who participate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4-1'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist nome cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.  If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the screen's expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poracid, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The app sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader for ruling by the State 4-H Leader. Following any disciplinary review, he person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropriate parties including but not limited to the 4-H'er, his/her parent/guardian and her county Extension faculty member.  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace  Prossession or use of alcohol or tobacco  Possession or use of alcohol or tobacco  Possession or or use	-H'ers and adults who observe a breach in the Code of Conduct must repo	ort the misbehavior to the appro	opriate leader. The leader will complete
Possession or use of a weapon Assault or harassment Inappropriate sexual behavior  Puters who participate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4-H'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist more Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chairperson. In some cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.  If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review opard, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension affects. Appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The apps sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader for ruling by the State 4-H Leader. Following any disciplinary review, he person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropriate parties including but not limited to the 4-H'er, his/her parent/guardian and her county Extension faculty member.  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Unauthorize	eview and consequences related to the incident. In these incidents, 4-H'ers m
The 4-H'er is found participate in these actions outside of the program may also be removed, suspended, or expelled from future 4-H participation.  If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4-d'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist one cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities. If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poor, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The app sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader for ruling by the State 4-H Leader. Following any disciplinary review, he person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropriate parties including but not limited to the 4-H'er, his/her parent/guardian and here county Extension faculty member.  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Reckless or inappropriate behavior  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Reckless or inappropriate behavior  Breaking curfew or disturbing the program and the state of the 4-H Code of Ethics  Remaining in the presence of those who are breaking the 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to participate fully in all aspects of program activities. I understand	<ul> <li>Possession or use of a weapon</li> </ul>
If the 4-H'er is found participating in the actions listed below, 4-H leaders may be notified and may lead the review and consequences related to the behavior. 4-d'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist one Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chairperson. In one cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.  If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the parents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poraces' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review porace' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review porace' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review porace' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review porace' expenses and may be upto one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review porace when the review porace were and the 10-decision of the 4-H'er may be sent home at the participation of the decision of the appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The ap	······
t'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in charge of the activity and may request a review board. The person coordinating the event may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has occurred and what disciplinary action should be taken. A review board will consist more Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The Extension faculty member coordinating the event will serve as chairperson. In ome cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement or other legal authorities.  If the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, his/her parents/guardians may be notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the arents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensions may be up to one year. If a 4-H'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review poard, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appeals must be filed within 10 days of notification of the disciplinary action. The appearements of the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4-H Leader for ruling by the State 4-H Leader. Following any disciplinary review, he person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropriate parties including but not limited to the 4-H'er, his/her parent/guardian and her county Extension faculty member.  Breaking curfew or disturbing the peace  Unexcused absences from the activities or premise of an event  Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event  Reckless or inappropriate behavior  Unse of foul or offensive language  Possession or use of e-cigarettes or other vaping devices  Breach of the 4-H Code of Ethics  Remaining in the presence of those who are breaking the 4-H Code of Conduct  Theft, misuse or abuse of public or personal property  Possession or use of e-cigarettes or other vaping devices  Distribution, misuse, or abuse of over-the-counter, homeopathic, including supplements	-H'ers who participate in these actions outside of the program may also be remov	ed, suspended, or expelled from fu	ture 4-H participation.
<ul> <li>Unexcused absences from the activities or premise of an event</li> <li>Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event</li> <li>Reckless or inappropriate behavior</li> <li>Use of foul or offensive language</li> <li>Possession or use of alcohol or tobacco</li> <li>Possession or use of e-cigarettes or other vaping devices</li> <li>PARENT/GUARDIAN &amp; 4-H'er AGREEMENTS Release Waiver of Liability and Covenant Not to Sue</li> <li>Phare read the Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to participate fully in all aspects of program activities. I understand the standard of behavior and agree to maintain such during 4-H programming.</li> </ul>	'ers misbehaving will have the opportunity to explain their actions to leaders in chavent may also convene a review board for the purposes of determining what has one Extension faculty or staff member, two volunteers and three 4-H members. The orne cases, incidents are deemed serious and may be referred to law enforcement of the 4-H'er receives consequences from the leader or through the review process, arents' expense and may be suspended from participation in 4-H events. Suspensic oard, the 4-H'er must appeal in writing through the County Extension office. Appears sent to the Program Development Coordinator of the 4-H member and the State 4 person coordinating the activity will provide written notification to the appropria	arge of the activity and may request curred and what disciplinary action Extension faculty member coordinator other legal authorities. his/her parents/guardians may be a may be up to one year. If a 4-H' als must be filed within 10 days of nother Leader for ruling by the State 4-	t a review board. The person coordinating the n should be taken. A review board will consist ating the event will serve as chairperson. In notified; the 4-H'er may be sent home at the 'er wishes to appeal the decision of the review otification of the disciplinary action. The appear H Leader. Following any disciplinary review,
Possession or use of alcohol or tobacco     Possession or use of e-cigarettes or other vaping devices      Distribution, misuse, or abuse of over-the-counter, homeopathic, including supplements and vitamins, or prescription medications  PARENT/GUARDIAN & 4-H'er AGREEMENTS Release Waiver of Liability and Covenant Not to Sue have read the Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to participate fully in all aspects of program activities. I understand the standard of behavior and agree to maintain such during 4-H programming.  Date	<ul> <li>Unexcused absences from the activities or premise of an event</li> <li>Unauthorized use of vehicles during the event</li> <li>Reckless or inappropriate behavior</li> </ul>	<ul><li>Remaining in the presence Conduct</li><li>Theft, misuse or abuse of</li></ul>	e of those who are breaking the 4-H Code of have read the Georgia 4-H Code of Conduct and agree to participate fully in all aspects of program activities. I understand the standard of behavior and agree to maintain such during 4-H programming.	Possession or use of alcohol or tobacco	<ul> <li>Distribution, misuse, or a</li> </ul>	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
& Li'ore Signature			to maintain such during 4-H programming.
	t Plan Signatura		Date

waiver, in whole or part, of sovereign immunity by said Board, its members, officers, agents, and employees. I certify that my child is participating in 4-H with my knowledge and consent. I have read and understand all of t above policies. I also give permission my child's images, likeness, and voice to be used by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia by and on behalf of the University of Georgia in print or electronic form.

Revised June 2019

Phone